The Brothers Pitman Arrested on Com merce Street on Saturday-Traces of their Crimes.

Sunday Constable Pryde and Officers Man-uel and Ashton arrested two men, W. C. Pitan and J. W. Pitman, alias Jackson, upo suspicion of having stolen a number of horses and mules. The officers had been watching for these men, who arrived by the Mississippi railroad Saturdev night. Sunday the offices visited a meat-shop on Commerce street, near the Raleigh road, where they espied the two men, one of whom was standing in the door and holding a pistol in his hand. 'As the offi-cers approached the two men ran out of the back door, but, finding it impossible to escape, returned to the shop, one secreting him-self in the cellar and the other going up stairs. They were arrested, however, and vesterday the recorder committed them to jail to await trial to-morrow. The police say that Saturday week two mouse-colored mules were stolen from Mrs. Weaver's place in Tip-ton county, and also a horse or two from another lady in that neighborhood. Five weeks ago the men passed through here, going north, with two horses. The stolen mule were sold near Helena, and also a pair disposed of to parties near Coldwater, Missis-sippi, five weeks ago. The horses which they brought up here were sold near Macon and Moscow. A number of bridles were found in possession of the men, who are reticent as to the charge for which they have been arrested.
